NDF Battles Petty Tyranny in Colonial Heights

Gary Gallo telling City Council that it will regret its abuse of the NDF

In the Feb88 issue of The Nationalist we announced that we would march in Colonial Heights, Virginia in April. Normally, obtaining a march permit is no problem (because of a little thing called the Constitution), but the City Council of Colonial Heights has decided to challenge the NDF. We accept the challenge.

On March 1st, the City Council denied us a permit to march and refused to provide an alternate site as it is required to do under its own City Code. We could, of course, go to court and sue Colonial Heights for $10,000 in compensatory damages and $1,000,000 in punitive damages in order to prevent this and other cities from violating our First Amendment rights of free speech and peaceful assembly. But in the end such a judgement would only hurt the residents of Colonial Heights, who would have to foot the bill (probably through increased taxes). It is the City Council that is our enemy and not the people of Colonial Heights. The residents of the city greeted us warmly when we marched there last April and joined our march in large numbers making it a success. So we intend to file suit only as a last resort.

THE POWER OF THE LEAFLET

Instead, we have decided to make Colonial Heights a focal point of our activities over the next two years in order to unseat the present Council members and install new Councilmen who are sympathetic to White Nationalism. We will blanket the city with leaflets month after month until our objective is attained. American politicians have forgotten the power of the leaflet in the age of radio and television. They count on the power of the Establishment press to save them, but we understand what Thomas Paine and Huey Long understood before us - that when the people are disenchanted with the System, it takes only an alternative voice to rouse them to resistance, and that voice comes to them most effectively in the form of a small sheet of paper delivered to their doorstep.

THE BATTLE BEGINS

Text of our first leaflet, which we will begin to distribute on March 26th, is reproduced below:

On February 12, 1988 the National Democratic Front applied for a permit to march in Colonial Heights to build support for White Nationalism. Apparently, the City Council believes that Constitutional rights of free speech and assembly stop at the city line because on March 1st it denied us permission to march in Colonial Heights. The city code requires the Council to offer an alternate site for a march that is denied for reasons of public convenience or security, but the Council refused to do so. Why? Because the Council members are multiracialists who are committed to preventing you from hearing the message of White Nationalism. They want no interference with their plans to integrate the city.

If you do not believe this then ask the Mayor and the Councilmen at a Council meeting, on record and before the press so they cannot retract their statements, whether each is a racialist or a multiracialist. Ask each if he believes in a racially integrated society, and then you will have your answer. The fact is that these Councilmen support race-mixing, and they will admit it if pressed in public.

Mayor James McNeer heads up the petty tyranny in Colonial Heights.

What do the multiracialists plan for Colonial Heights? Right now there are two projects in the works. One is the building of a low-income (i.e. Black) housing project in the city, and the second is to require that 35% of the new South Park Mall be minority owned so that we can see the friendly faces from Virginia State University, and its Convict Rehabilitation Program, shopping in the city. Need we remind that, according to the FBI Uniform Crime Report, Blacks commit 63% of all the robberies, 49% of all the rapes, and 47% of all the murders in America even though they constitute only 13% of the country's population?

After the White Nationalist march in Colonial Heights last April, one of our Colonial Heights members was fired from her job at the Violet Bank Museum by City Manager Robert Taylor for making comments to the press in support of the march. Such is freedom in America and in Colonial Heights. We will not rest unitl the petty tyrants who now govern Colonial Heights are ousted from the City Council. We urge you to help us and to vote against the following in the next Council election on May 10th: James McNeer, John Wood, Charles Townes, and John Brockwell, Jr.

SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS!

Updates on the campaign in Colonial Heights will appear in future issues of The Nationalist. GG

Reagan on a String

The Jewish Lobby often boasts (particularly to the Israelis) of the control it has over American presidents. Never has that power been made more obvious than in President Reagan's February 24th press conference. You can almost see the wires extending from puppet to puppeteer in this exchange:

Reporter: Through the years you've been very eloquent on the subject of human rights and the Soviet Union and Nicaragua. The question really is: Why have you never condemned the treatment of the Palestinians in the occupied areas? Shooting unarmed protestors, beating people to death, children, trying to bury some alive, and I'd like to follow up.

Reagan: We have made, we have spoken to the government there, and we've also spoken to Palestinian leadership, there's every evidence that these riots are not just spontaneous and home-grown. But we have spoken, and that's why, part of the reason why the Secretary of State is going back over there. We don't support that sort of thing, and we're trying to persuade all the participants to try to arrive at a solution representing justice for all.

Reporter: Well, if you want that, and you say you believe in security for Israel and legitimate rights for the Palestinians, why don't you go on the public record now and say that there should be an exchange, a removal of the occupation and peace?

Reagan: Well, I don't think it's up to us to dictate the settlement in the Middle East.

Obviously, Six-gun Ronnie thinks we should just pay for Israel's wars and keep our mouths shut.

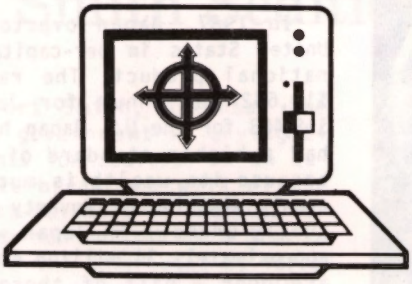
Later in the press conference he was asked more questions about Israel:

Reporter: Who precisely are you criticizing when you say that the riots are not home-grown and not spontaneous?

Reagan: Well, we have had, it's a little difficult for me because there are some things that I shouldn't be saying, but we have had intimations that there have been certain people suspected of being terrorists, outsiders coming in, not only with weapons but stirring up and encouraging the trouble in those areas. Now that isn't something you can go out and say we absolutely know, but certainly the violence is both ways.

Yes Ronnie, the violence is both ways: the Arabs get shot dead and buried alive and the Jews get hit with stones. It is not clear whether Six-gun believes that all Palestinians are outsiders, or just those Palestinians that were forced out of Palestine by the Jews. Or maybe he is referring to the Libyans as the outsiders. Yeah, that's it! Ronnie has more irrefutable evidence (no doubt provided by the MOSSAD again) that Muammar is behind the riots. Hold on to your tent straps!

You can almost see the strings attached to Ronald Reagan's arms.



Technology Fund Appeal

The National Democratic Front is expanding rapidly and desperately needs more computer equipment and software for both administrative purposes and desktop publishing. Our goal is to raise $5000 and this appeal will continue to run until we receive the necessary contributions. This is an opportunity for those of you who cannot be active to sacrifice for the Movement. We know you will not let us down.

Please give as much as you can each month.

Enclosed is my check for the Technology Fund in the amount of:

SHORT BURSTS

Another Big Bank Bailout

The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation has pumped one billion dollars into First Republic Bank to save it from collapse. First Republic is the largest bank in Texas and is the 13th largest bank in the U.S. What is interesting is that the Federal government let over 100 small banks (mostly farm banks) go down the tubes last year, but when a big bank is in trouble it manages to find the funds to help it. Why? Because capitalism is a system of welfare for the rich. The government could take over these big banks and leave the stockholders and officers with nothing while continuing to operate under a new name or names - which is basically what happens when a small bank goes under. But no, we don't want those millionaires to suffer. It would be cruel and unusual punishment to force them to give up their Rolls Royces for Mercedes.

Raids in Occupied Germany

The West German government has raided the homes of 90 suspected "neo-Nazis" confiscating swastika flags and arresting four persons. They searched the 90 homes in 61 cities for evidence of membership in the Action Front of National Socialists which was outlawed in 1983 for promoting National Socialism. It has been a crime in the "free" country of West Germany to advocate National Socialism ever since the occupation began in 1945. The reason, of course, is that the occupation government fears the powerful appeal that the National Socialist message has for Germans. Historians argue over whether Hitler had the support of 90% of Germans or only 80%. The present German "democracy" has no intentions of allowing the will of the people to be expressed again.

Weld Attacks Legal Corrption

William Weld, the new and very naive head of the Justice Department's Criminal Division, has attacked Congress for maintaining a double standard in regard to ethics violations. Weld said when he read a story about a coal company that paid $2000 each to members of Congress who oversee mining legislation to tour its facilities, he assumed that the payments were illegal. Such bribery is illegal for the executive branch but not for the legislative branch as Congress exempted itself from the ethics law. This is standard practice for the Congress. It exempts itself from all of the odious things that it requires ordinary citizens to do. For example, Congress is exempt from anti-discrimination hiring laws. Your dedicated Congressmen will make you hire the lazy and incompetent nig-nogs, but they do not want too many running around on Capitol Hill.

WILLIAM F. WELD

Justice American Style

In Washington D.C. a Black 21 year old man, Lewis Lyons, was released without bond after being charged with murdering a youth in Georgetown. Obviously, we all think this is ridiculous - and it is. But it is logical in a system that presumes a man innocent before he is proven guilty. Do we really follow this legal maxim? No. If we did then there would be no such thing as bail as all would be released immediately after being charged. The fact that every state imprisons defendants before trial demonstrates that we all view the maxim as nonsense. So many crimes are committed by habitual criminals on bail that it is time to do away with this hypocrisy, and instead demand speedy trials. If accused felons are tried within thirty days then release on bail is unnecesary. Justice delayed is justice denied - and we have finally found a cliche that we can agree with.

Japan Overtakes U.S.

In 1987, Japan overtook the United States in per-capita gross national product. The ratio is $19,642 per annum for Japan to $18,403 for the U.S. Japan has long had a higher standard of living because its wealth is much more evenly distributed. Poverty is virtually unknown in Japan whereas approximately 34 million Americans are poor - half of these being White. This greater buying power on the part of the ordinary Japanese citizen is what will allow the Japanese to adjust much better to the coming trade war than will the U.S. In fact, the Japanese have already begun to reorient their trade policy inward in anticipation of trouble. Domestic markets are now considered more important than foreign markets which is a major change in emphasis.

SHORT BURSTS

The Asylum Called New York

New York City has a well deserved reputation for incredibly gruesome crimes. In some of the latest incidents: 1) on March 21st, a Bronx mother, Roberta Chatterton, was charged today with holding her 5 year old daughter while three men and a woman raped her at what authorities say were drug-induced orgies, 2) three teenage girls were charged with breaking into a Manhatten apartment and terrorizing a 90 year old woman and her 83 year old sister - they wanted money to buy clothing, 3) on March 23rd, Marian Lopez McKenzie killed her 3 year old son by throwing him into a bathtub of scalding water to punish him for soiling his diapers.

New York City represents what all of America will be like if capitalism and multiracialism are not destroyed. It is a city where people are stripped of their racial and cultural identity, where men are stripped of their masculinity and women stripped of their femininity - all in the name of equality. Individualism and absolute self-seeking are all that remain. Those who obey the law do so not out of respect for it or society, but because they fear prison and do not have the influence to beat the rap in a corrupt legal system.

Stunning Ignorance

A study by the National Endowment for the Humanities found that 68% of high school students could not place the Civil War within the correct half-century. The report recommended that schools rid themselves of "social studies" and concentrate on a systematic study of history. Finally we have a piece of decent advice on education. The study of economic, scientific, social, military and political history must be the foundation of the education of our leaders.

In the Land of the Free

A Lucas County, Ohio couple, James and Kathleen Wood, have been sentenced to six months in prison by Juvenile Court Judge Burke Smith for educating their children at home. It will be the petty tyrants in black robes that will feel the first lashes of revolution. The black robes are so very lenient when it comes to rapists and murderers, but they fear men and women of principle - as well they should. Let us never forget what the black robes have done to our Race and Nation - especially when they beg for mercy when they are being sentenced. Unlike our enemies who are arrogant in victory and cringing in defeat, we do not ask for quarter and we give none. The Woods are an excellent example of such stoic strength - the miserable little judge offered them freedom if they would compromise their principles, and they refused.

Ft. Smith Sedition Circus Begins

In Fort Smith, Arkansas the federal government is trying 14 defendants for sedition in an attempt to break the will of the racialist movement in America. Sedition is now defined as a plan to overthrow the government by force. An ambiguous sedition law was first passed in 1798 to protect the then Federalist government from criticism, but it proved so unpopular that Thomas Jefferson and his Democrats were able to use it to oust the Federalists from power. A sedition law was used against socialists in World War I, against isolationists and National Socialist sympathizers in World War II, and against Communists during the McCarthy era. Now it is being used against White racialists and for the same reason - the government perceives the White racialist movement to be a genuine threat to its security. It fears that the message of these racialists will strike a chord in the hearts of the American people as the country continues to degenerate, and if it does it means the end for the System as we know it. And the government is correct in its assessment, but the sedition trial will backfire on it.

Wedtech Epitomizes Multiracial Life

In 1980, while campaigning in New York City, Ronald Reagan stood on a South Bronx street corner and pledged to rebuild that burned out multiracial community. Jimmy Carter had promised the same thing there four years before. Shortly after the election, a group of savvy New York City businessmen took the Reagan Administration up on its word. They converted a small South Bronx die-making company into a minority-owned defense contractor called the Wedtech Corp., and they bribed their way to a short-lived success. They bought not only high-level Reagan Administration officials, but local and state politicians, Congressmen and Senators, and labor union leaders to obtain labor peace. As one defense attorney put it Wedtech was a "one--company crime wave".

The company was founded by a Hispanic named John Mariotta, but came under the control of a Jew named Fred Neuberger who secretly owned 50% of the corporation's stock. This had to remain secret because a minority-owned company is one in which the majority of the stock, and actual control, rests in the hands of minorities, and Jews do not qualify (not yet anyway). In 1981 officials of the company regularly visted the White House to see one of Reagan's top aides, Lynn Nofziger and to consult on "enterprise zones." When Nofziger left the White House in 1982 to cash in on his contacts he was quickly hired by Wedtech as a consultant. Nofziger immediatlely began to lobby White House officials such as Ed Meese (then counselor to the President) to help Wedtech get Army contracts, despite a law specifically prohibiting such contacts. Nofziger was convicted in March of violating this conflict of interest law (the same law Michael Deaver broke), and he will be sentenced on April 8th.

INFLUENCE BUYS CONTRACTS

Nofziger's efforts on behalf of Wedtech resulted in the company being awarded hundreds of millions of dollars worth of no bid contracts by the Army and the Small Business Administration. Neither the Army nor the SBA initially wanted to award the contracts to Wedtech but their arms were twisted by Meese's top aide, Jim Jenkins. Jenkins made call after call and held meetings at which the Army and the SBA got the message that Meese wanted Wedtech to get a $32 million Army contract (its first.) Meese personally reinforced this impression by saying that he wanted Wedtech to get a "fair hearing" - and the bureaucrats understood the Doublespeak.

But Wedtech did not rely on the Nofziger connection alone. Prosecutors have charged that the company bribed E. Bob Wallach, Meese's personal attorney, and W. Franklyn Chin, Meese's financial advisor to exercise their influence on Meese. Wallach got as much as $1.4 million.

REAGAN SALUTES WEDTECH

On March 6, 1984, Reagan spoke at a "Salute to Victory" dinner in New York and praised Wedtech and its founder John Mariotta, and called Wedtech's founder a "hero for the eighties." Indeed, the Reagan Administration held up Wedtech time after time as a model for the new multiracial capitalism that Reagan was pushing in his "enterprise zones" in order to solve inner city poverty. And indeed, Wedtech does represent what multiracialism and capitalism are all about - absolute corruption and self-seeking. The top officers of Wedtech were so greedy that they killed the goose that laid the golden egg. They plundered the company so thoroughly that it had to declare bankruptcy in 1986 despite having obtained over $250 million in government contracts.

When the tale began to become unraveled during bankruptcy proceedings Mariotta quickly agreed to cooperate with authorities. But the other four top Wedtech officers - Fred Neuberger, Anthony Guariglia, Mario Moreno, and Lawrence Shorten - stayed true to form. They first discussed murdering Mariotta with Neuberger saying he would "hire a former agent from Israel... someone who will kill him. You just tell me when." Then they tried to get Meese to fix the case through Wallach, but this proved impossible as too much had already come out. In they end the four plea bargained.

HAIL BABEL!

The testimony in the trials so far indicates that the company bribed or attempted to buy the following people: Edwin Meese, Lyn Nofziger (convicted), Congressman Mario Biaggi (convicted on unrelated obstruction of justice charges), Senator Alphonse D'Amato, Bronx Borough president Stanley Simon, Bernhard Ehrlich (Biaggi's law partner), Mark Bragg (Nofziger's partner), E. Bob Wallach, W.Franklyn Chinn, and various SBA officials and labor union leaders. This is only a partial list because the trials are far from over. Even Meese may go on trial for his Wedtech shenanigans as Independent Counsel James McKay is now investigating the case. The gas from the rotting corpse of this country keeps percolating to the surface as it is so great it can no longer be contained. How long can our people pretend to ignore the stench? We think, not much longer. GG

WHITE UNITY DAY VIDEOTAPE

ON Saturday, January 16, 1988 the National Democratic Front staged its first march. The march took place on White Unity Day in downtown Raleigh, North Carolina, and the beautiful weather allowed us to make an excellent videotape of the event which features vibrant speeches by Gordon Gray, John Metzger, Tom Metzger and Gary Gallo.

If you want a record of this significant development in White Nationalism please send $15.00 to NDF, P.O. Box 915, Washington Grove, MD 20880 for your VHS videotape. This price includes postage and handling.

LETTERS

Dear Gary,

In the Feb88 issue of The Nationlist you acknowledged some of my art work on recent covers. Thanks for the plug and the opportunity to contribute to Democratic Nationalism through our publication. Your mention of my little logo (the U.S. flag in distress) deserves further explanation.

In order for our people to "withdraw our consent to be governed" we will start with passive resistance since, at this time in the struggle, they do have the big battalions. The ways to do this are infinite, but to have an effect should be practised by all of us and with a purpose. The logo with the upside down U.S. flag is a reminder to our readers to resist tyranny and expose hypocrisy with every breath, but to do it legally at this stage. Federal statutes state that the flag of the Union should be displayed downward only when the country is in a state of dire distress. The NDF should recognize reality and be the first political organization to declare this state of dire distress to the people. I would not advocate yet that we all fly Old Glory topsy turvy which would enrage and confuse those who thought they were fighting for it in one of our recent wars. But what we all can do with impugnity right now is to buy only the 22 cent stamps with flags on them and stick these on all correspondence upside down. The only thing our enemies can do once this is popularized Movement-wide is to withdraw the stamp from circulation altogether. So stock up now for the long haul. I am surprised at the per cent of my incoming mail which is already "properly stamped". I notice them all and cherish each as another small victory because I know it was a deliberate act of defiance. I wonder if our Jewish Postmaster-General, Preston Tisch (CBS Larry's brother), notices also. Or if his new Jewish replacement at that post, Anthony Frank (Anne's brother?), will notice. I hope so. It will send a persistant message to the scum who cover our mail.

If I may digress for a "bicentennial minute", I'm reminded of the ironical quote attributed to America's first (and best) Postmaster-General, Benjamin Franklin. Concerning Jewish immigration he told the Constitutional Convention, "If they are not excluded from the U.S. by the Constitution, within less than 100 years, they will stream into this country in such numbers they will rule and destroy us and change our form of government for which we Americans shed our blodd and sacrificed life, property and personal freedom. If the Jews are not excluded, within 200 years our children will be working in the fields to feed the Jews while they remain in the counting house gleefully rubbing their hands. I warn you, gentlemen, if you do not exclude the Jews forever, your children's children will curse you in your graves. Their ideas are not those of Americans even when they have lived among us for ten generations. The leopard cannot change its spots, The Jews are a danger to this land and if they are allowed to enter they will imperil our institutions - they should be excluded by the Consitution."

It seems as if Old Ben may have been more than just a great historian, inventor, statesmen and realist - like a prophet maybe! Even if he didn't speak these exact words, as I am sure detractors will claim, if you examine history you must admit that he certainly could have.

Editor- it is not an accident that the Jews seek control of the Post Office. The Post Office is instrumental in political surveillance. To understand how important postal services are to secret services we suggest that you read Peter Wright's recent book Spycatchers.

Dear Mr. Gallo:

Just now I have re-read the 1985 statement - The National Democratic Front's Program of Democratic Nationalism, and I must say it is comprehensive and admirable. Yesteray I received the Winter 1988 issue of New America and have read all of it. Your editorial "Masters of History" is not only a masterful challenge to your followers but is also a wonderful guide for any citizen who desires to understand the human race. It stands so appropriately as sort of an introduction to the contents of the magazine which presents in brief form some very interesting accounts of phases of history.... I sincerely hope that your group and program increase in strength and influence. God knows, the White Majority badly needs to be awakened!

With all best wishes,

Mathews to carry out violent acts against the System. But the Federal government is trying to throw a broad net over racialist leaders who were not in The Order, claiming that all were part of a massive conspiracy to violently overthrow the federal government. Louis Beam, Pastor Richard Butler, and Pastor Robert Miles are three racialist leaders caught in this net of lies. Louis Beam is a former KKK leader from Texas who set up a computer network for the racialist movement. Pastor Butler is the the leader of the Aryan Nations Church of Hayden Lake, Idaho which preaches Identity Christianity, and Pastor Miles is the leader of the Mountain Church of Cohoctah, Michigan which preaches Christian Dualism.

To give you some idea of the weakness of the government's case, the prosecutors have announced their intention to call 250 witnesses. The jury will not be able to recall even the names of the witnesses let alone what they testified to and how it fits or contradicts. This is obviously the idea. The prosecutors intend to overwhelm the jury with information all of which sounds bad for the defendants, thinking that the impression of wrong-doing will suffice to sway the jury even when essential elements have not been established beyond a reasonable doubt. But this strategy can and very likely will backfire as the jury will tire of the dissembling and will react against the government once it realizes that it is being snowed. Further, such a convoluted trial is easier to overturn on appeal. Already the trial judge has threatened the prosecutors with mistrial if they do not get themselves organized and under control.

THE RACE TRAITORS TESTIFY

The two most important witnesses for the government are former racialist leaders James Ellison, leader of the Sword, the Arm and the Covenant of the Lord in Arkansas, and Glenn Miller, leader of the White Patriot Party of North Carolina. Miller and Ellison have decided to testify against their former comrades in order to get their own sentences reduced and as such will say anything necessary to please their masters. Ellison was convicted of various arms charges and Miller openly declared war on the Federal government and went underground to begin the fight. But Miller gave up without a shot when his trailer in Missouri was surrounded by Federal agents, and he began almost immediately to cooperate to save himself.

Both race traitors have already testified. Ellison described a series of crimes, all of which were commited by his CSA people, and claimed that they were carried out as part of this grand conspiracy. But he could site no crimes committed by Beam, Butler or Miles. The same was true of Miller. Ellison claimed that this conspiracy was hatched at Butler's compound in 1983. But what is known of the history of The Order suggests that Bob Mathews left the Aryan Nations compound as a result of disputes with Butler over the violent strategy that Mathews was pushing. Further, Mathews rejected Identity Christianity as his references to Valhalla in his last letters would indicate.

Rodney Smolla, a professor of law at the University of Arkansas, has been quoted as saying, "I find the use of the sedition laws very, very dangerous. Any time you could point to violence or some other palpable harm, there are plenty of other laws to permit prosecution." And indeed there are which is why the media has given this trial so little coverage. The media masters are afraid that the American people will perceive this trial, rightly, as a political trial and that many Americans will sympathize with the defendants and their cause.

For information on the progress of the trial call the Fort Smith Hotline which is run by Butler and Miles: (501) 785-3945. You can send donations for legal defense to: Richard Butler, P.O. Box 362, Hayden Lake, ID 83835, or Robert Miles, P.O. Box 331, Cohoctah, MI 48816. GG
